

No! Who would want to listen to hundreds of conversations when confined to a small space? Who ever thought this one up does NOT fly on commercial planes. Just visualize sitting in the middle seat with different conversations going on either side of you, and in front and back. Maybe you, but NOT ME! Do not let this bill go anywhere except dead. My job involves travel and this would end my career!